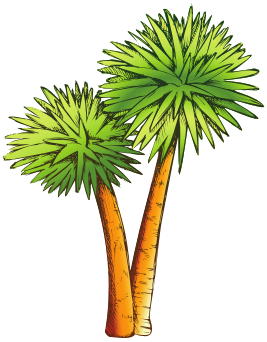
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

FLORIDA

State Nickname: The Sunshine State

The Capital of Florida is located in Tallahassee.

The state tree is the Sabal Palm.



The state bird is the Northern Mockingbird.

FUN FACTS ABOUT DISNEY WORLD:

The park attracts over 58 million people every year.

There is a trash bin every 30 feet in Disney World.

Mickey Mouse is hidden all throughout the park.

The official motto of Florida is “In God We Trust.” The same motto used by the United States of America.

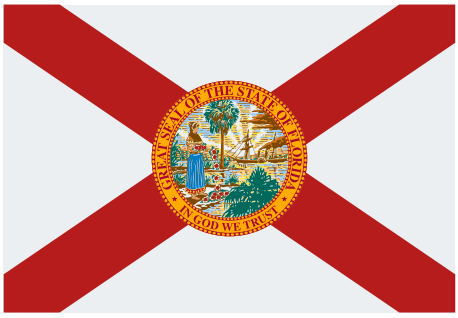
The official state flower of Florida is the Orange Blossom.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

FLORIDA

Established: 1845

The Florida Flag consists of a red saltire on a white background, with the state seal superimposed on the center.



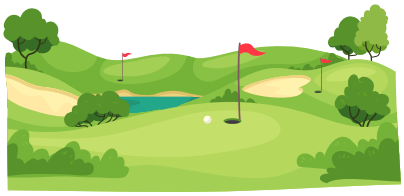
STATE FACTS:

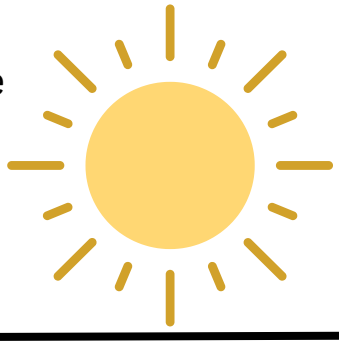
- Square Miles: 65,758
- 22nd Largest State
- Largest City: Jacksonville
- 175 State Parks
- Highest Point: 345 feet - Britton Hill

FUN FACTS ABOUT FLORIDA:

Florida has 10 major theme parks as well as many smaller attractions throughout the state.

Florida has the most golf courses.



Florida has 823 miles of beaches.


Florida is known as the “Sunshine State” because the state has abundant sunshine and warm temperatures. The term “Sunshine State” was adopted in 1970 and has been used ever since.