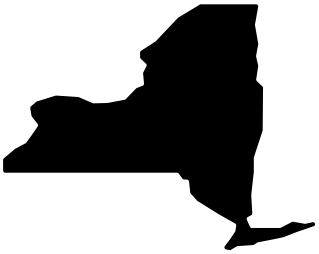
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

NEW YORK



State Nickname: The Empire State

The Capitol of New York is in Albany, New York.

The state tree is the Sugar Maple tree.

The state bird is the Eastern Bluebird.

FUN FACTS:

New York has over 70,000 miles of rivers and streams.

The official state song of New York is “I Love New York.”

New York City is the most populated city in the USA.

The official motto of New York is--Excelsior--which means "Ever Upward" and E pluribus unum—which means "Out of many one."

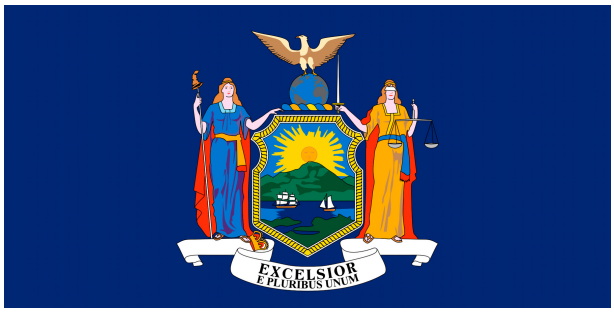
The official state flower of New York is the Rose.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

NEW YORK

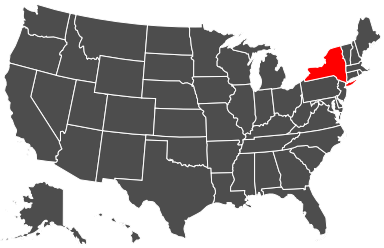
Established: 1624

The New York state flag features a sun symbol, two supporters, and the motto “Excelsior” (“Ever upward”) on a ribbon. The scene depicted under the sun in the coat of arms is a view of the Hudson River.



STATE FACTS:

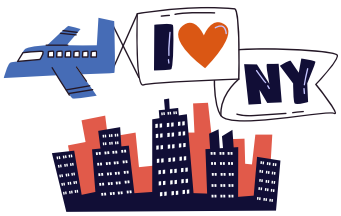
- Square Miles: 54,556
- 27th Largest State
- Largest City: New York City
- 215 State Parks
- Highest Point: 5,344 feet, Mount Marcy



FUN FACTS ABOUT NEW YORK CITY

8 million people live in NYC.

More than 800 languages are spoken in New York City,



The New York Public Library has over 50 million books and other items and is the second largest library system in the nation

Every year Americans remember the anniversary of the 9/11 attacks when 2 airplanes collided into the World Trade Center buildings. Today, you can visit a memorial dedicated to the attacks.