CRYSTALCARDER.COM

GEORGIA

State Nickname: The Peach State

The Capitol of Georgia is in Atlanta.

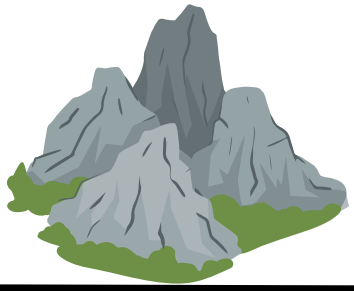
The state tree is the Live Oak.

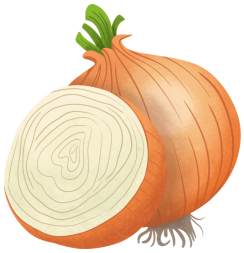
The state bird is the Brown Thrasher.

FUN FACTS:

Coca-Cola was invented in Atlanta in 1886, and you can visit the World of Coca-Cola museum there!

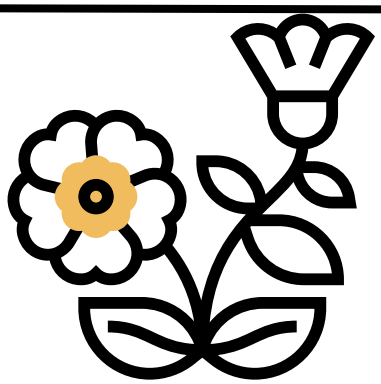
The famous Stone Mountain in Georgia is one of the largest pieces of exposed granite in the world.





Georgia is home to Vidalia onions, which are so sweet they're only grown in certain parts of the state!

Wisdom, Justice, and Moderation."
That means Georgia believes in making smart choices, being fair, and not going overboard.



The state flower is the Cherokee Rose.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

GEORGIA

Established: January 2, 1788

Georgia's flag has three red, white, and red stripes with a blue square in the corner. Inside the blue part is the state's seal and 13 stars to show Georgia was one of the first 13 colonies.

STATE FACTS:

- Square Miles: 59,425
- 24th Largest State
- Largest City: Atlanta
- 50 State Parks
- Highest Point: 4,784 feet, Brasstown Bald

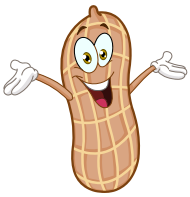
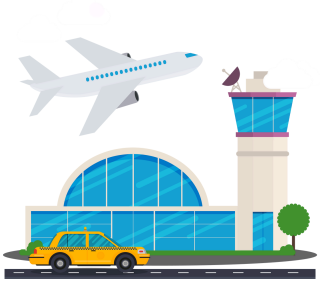
GEORGIA PEANUTS?

Georgia is famous for peaches, but it actually grows more peanuts and pecans than peaches!

The city of Plains, Georgia, is where President Jimmy Carter was born—and he was a peanut farmer!



Georgia even has a giant peanut statue with a smiling face to honor its peanut pride! .



Georgia is home to the world's busiest airport—Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport! Millions of people travel through it each year, making Atlanta a major hub for flights all around the world.