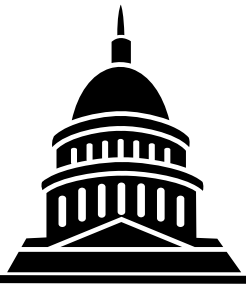
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

OHIO

State Nickname: The Buckeye State

The Capitol of Ohio is Columbus.



The state tree is the Ohio Buckeye.

The state bird is the Northern Cardinal.

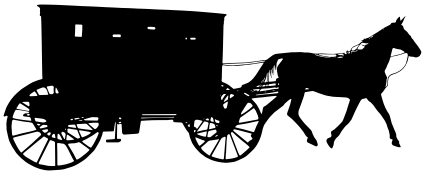
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

FUN FACTS:

The Cuyahoga River in Ohio once caught fire because of pollution, which helped start the environmental movement in the U.S.

Ohio has produced eight U.S. Presidents, more than almost any other state!

Ohio is the only state with a town named “Buggy”—and it’s famous for lots of horse-drawn buggies used by the Amish community!



Ohio's state motto is "With God, all things are possible," which comes from the Bible in Matthew 19:26. It reminds kids that no matter how hard something seems, God can help make anything possible.

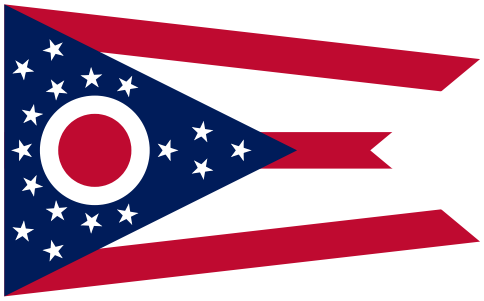
The state flower is the Red Carnation.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

OHIO

Established: March 1, 1803

Ohio's state flag is shaped like a swallowtail, which is different from all the other states' flags. It has red, white, and blue colors with stars and a big circle to show the state's nickname, the Buckeye State!



STATE FACTS:

- Square Miles: 44,825
- 34th Largest State
- Largest City: Columbus
- 75 State Parks
- Highest Point: 1,550 feet, Campbell Hill

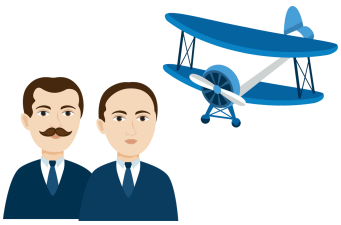
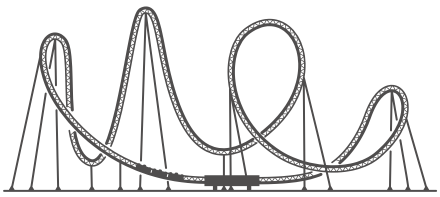
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

OHIO HIGHLIGHTS:



The first airplane was invented by the Wright brothers from Dayton, Ohio—so Ohio is known as the "Birthplace of Aviation"!

The famous Rock and Roll Hall of Fame is in Cleveland, where you can learn about music legends.



Cedar Point in Sandusky, Ohio is one of the biggest and oldest amusement parks in the world, with some of the tallest roller coasters!

Ohio is home to some super-sized sights—like a building shaped like a giant picnic basket and the world's biggest cuckoo clock that really tells time! You can also see the largest outdoor chandelier sparkle in Cleveland or ride one of the tallest roller coasters at Cedar Point—it's like a state made for adventures