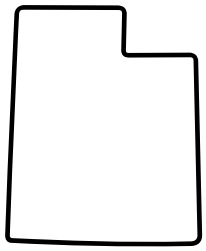
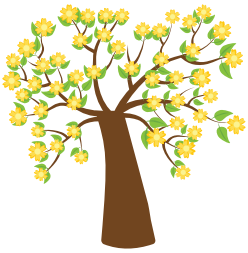
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

UTAH



State Nickname: The Beehive State

The Capitol of Utah is Salt Lake City.



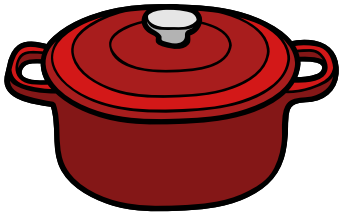
The state tree is the Quaking Aspen..

The state bird is the California Gull.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

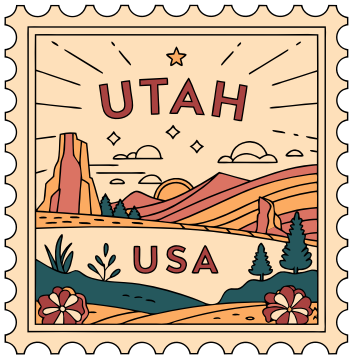
FUN FACTS:

Utah is one of the Four Corners states, where you can stand in four states at once!



Utah’s state cooking pot is the Dutch oven—perfect for camping and outdoor cooking.

tah has the youngest population in the U.S.—lots of kids live there!



The Utah state motto is "Industry." This word means working hard and being busy like bees, which is why Utah’s symbol is the beehive—it shows how people should work together and help each other.

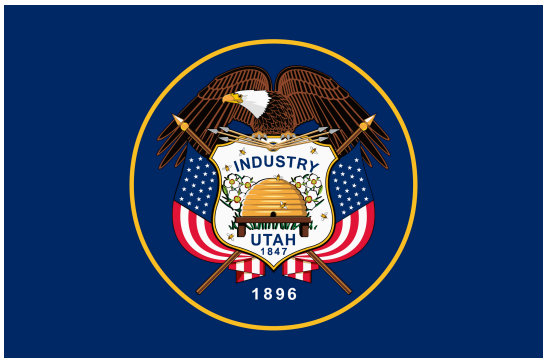
The state flower is the Sego Lily.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

UTAH

Established: January 4, 1896

Utah's state flag has a golden circle and a beehive in the center, standing for hard work and unity. The flag also includes eight stars for the pioneer trails and a big star for Utah itself, showing pride in its history and people.



STATE FACTS:

- Square Miles: 84,897
- 13th Largest State
- Largest City: Salt Lake City
- 46 State Parks
- Highest Point: 13,528 feet, Kings Peak

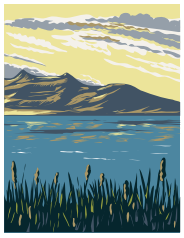
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

UTAH HIGHLIGHTS:



Utah is home to the Great Salt Lake, the largest saltwater lake in the Western Hemisphere!

The Great Salt Lake is saltier than the ocean, and people can float easily in it!

Arches National Park in Utah has over 2,000 natural stone arches—more than anywhere else in the world!

Utah is famous for its "Mighty 5" National Parks: Arches, Bryce Canyon, Canyonlands, Capitol Reef, and Zion. These parks are full of amazing red rocks, tall cliffs, and cool places to hike and explore!