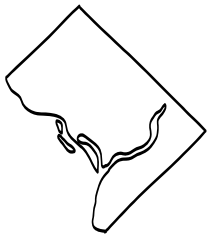
CRYSTALCARDER.COM

WASHINGTON DC

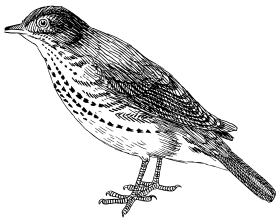


"The Nation's Capital" or "The Federal City"

DC is the Nation's Capital

The official tree is the Scarlet Oak Tree.

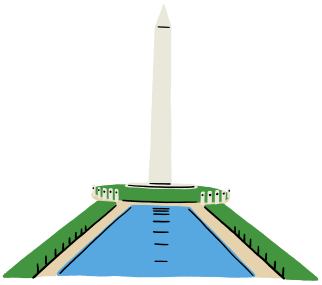
The capital bird is the Wood Thrush.



FUN FACTS ABOUT THE CAPITAL

Bald eagles live near Washington, DC.

DC is famous for its many monuments and memorials.



Washington, DC was named after George Washington.

Washington, DC's motto is "Justitia Omnibus," which means "Justice for All." It reminds people that everyone should be treated fairly and equally.

The American Beauty Rose is the official flower of Washington, DC.

CRYSTALCARDER.COM

WASHINGTON DC

Established: July 16, 1790

Washington, DC has its own flag with three red stars and two red bars. The design is based on George Washington's family coat of arms.

STATE FACTS:

- Square Miles: 68.34
- Capital of the United States
- National Parks: 25
- Highest Point: 409 feet – Fort Reno Park

FUN FACTS ABOUT WASHINGTON DC'S MUSEUMS

The Smithsonian has one of the world's largest dinosaur collections.

The Air and Space Museum displays famous spacecraft.

The National Museum of Natural History displays the Hope Diamond.

Washington, DC is where America's biggest decisions are made! The President, Congress, and Supreme Court work here to help lead the country.